

For students who'd like to set up their own RenWeb access, they'll need to follow a process:

1) Go to RenWeb.com and click on the Login | ParentsWeb option

2) At the bottom of the login screen, they'll click the link to create an account

4) They'll receive an e-mail with a link and instructions to complete the process. NOTE: That link will be valid for only six hours.

5) Once the account is created and verified, it may be used either in the RenWeb Home app (which should be pushed out to all MS iPads) or on the ParentsWeb web site, although for the latter the student will need to select the Student button when logging in.
