

Catholic School Principal

Christ the King School in Lexington, Kentucky, a twice-honored National Blue Ribbon School of Excellence, is actively seeking an innovative and visionary principal for the 2021-2022 academic school year. Christ the King School provides over 500 students in grades Pre-K through 8th an opportunity to grow in character, knowledge and spirit. The principal is supported in the role of educational leader by an experienced faculty and staff, a vibrant parent community, and devoted parish community. The principal reports directly to the pastor and has chief responsibility for the day-to-day operation of the school by serving as the spiritual, educational, managerial, and community leader of the school. These duties include, but are not limited to, the following:

- The principal should live and model the Catholic faith in words and actions and articulate the mission of the school to alumni, parents, faculty, staff and the wider community;
- The principal is responsible for building and maintaining a strong school culture through faith-based, collaborative leadership.
- The principal, assisted by the Business Manager, School Council and the Finance Council, has the general charge and control of the budget and the school's business affairs.
- The principal, with the support of two assistant principals, hires, leads, manages, provides development for and collaborates with the faculty and staff to create a positive, faith-filled learning environment.

The successful candidate will hold the following credentials:

- Be a practicing Catholic
- Be a certified teacher and have met the standards for principal certification
- Have to his or her credit at least six years of successful teaching and/or administrative experience, preferably in a Catholic school

To Apply:

Given the desire for the new principal to be in place well before the start of the 2021-2022 academic year, candidates are encouraged to submit their materials as soon as possible and by June 7. Interested candidates should email a formal cover letter expressing interest in the position and current resume to Fr. Paul Prabell at pprabell@cdlex.org.
